

Social Media Manager (m/f/t) full-time Berlin

About us

Founded in June 2018, EDU is a brand of Digital Education Holdings Ltd. (DEH), a private institution for higher education with a vision to substantially increase the quality and accessibility of education.

In a world where technology is re-shaping the way we study and live, we want to harness technology as a tool to support continuous lifelong learning. Our aim at EDU is to make high quality education accessible to anyone in the world who is passionate about studying.

We are a dedicated team of founders, thinkers, makers and doers with a broad background in Medicine, Education and Technology. Although EDU is a young company, our team has proven track record of successfully building higher education online learning programmes for renowned global companies and organisations under the Candena brand as well designing medical programme, formerly under European Medical College (EuMeC).

EDU Medical, our ground-breaking programme, is disrupting the way medicine is studied. As the first College of Medicine of its kind, EDU Medical focuses on practical experience and problem-based synchronous learning in small groups, supported by the latest digital technologies. We partner with best-in-class teaching hospitals for practical training during clinical rotations. Our students start their practical (clinical) rotation from the 1st module i.e. within 8 weeks of starting their studies!

To ramp-up our growth, we are looking for an experienced Performance Marketing Manager.
